

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate

EDUCATION

University of Milan, J.D.

University of Trento,
Masters in European and
International Law

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

England and Wales

LANGUAGES

English
Italian
German

ATTORNEY PROFILE

Alessandra Zingales Counsel

Muscat

PHONE: +968 24 564 495

FAX: +968 24 564 497

Alessandra Zingales, Counsel in the Muscat office, advises on a wide range of corporate and commercial matters, as well as local Omani law matters, and represents numerous international public and private companies doing business in Oman, with a particular focus on European companies in the construction and infrastructure sector. She has extensive experience in advising international companies tendering for public projects in Oman and local large corporations, government owned entities and funds in relation to procurement and development of a variety of projects, including food security projects and tourism projects.

She also advises regularly on real estate related matters such as usufructs, legal mortgages, residential and commercial tenancies and Integrated Tourism Complexes, including hotel and residential developments.

Ms. Zingales contributes on a regular basis to multi-national guides and textbooks on various legal issues, including the World Bank "Doing Business" Guide (Oman).

She has been working in Oman since 2008 and, before joining Curtis, she worked in two leading local law firms.

News

April 14, 2016

Curtis Oman expands again with new counsel Alessandra Zingales