Ms. Al-Balushi is an associate in the firm's litigation group. She is licensed to conduct advocacy for clients before the primary courts of Oman.

Ms. Al-Balushi has experience in handling a wide range of civil, commercial, administrative and employment cases as well as acting for individuals charged under the Criminal Procedural Law. As well as her drafting skills and in-depth understanding of law and practice, she is known for providing clients with practical advice and assistance.

Ms. Al-Balushi is an active member of the Omani Lawyers' Association who is often invited to provide commentary on the profession to the media. In 2014, she was selected as Oman's participant in the prestigious International Visitors Leadership Programme (IVLP) in the USA, a professional exchange programme sponsored by the US State Department's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Prior to joining Curtis, she trained and worked for five years in private practice at a leading Omani law firm in Muscat.
